Historic Dominion Day Sunday, July 1 ~ 10 am to 4 pm

Lang, ON- The best place to be on Canada's birthday is back in time! Honour Canada's birthday with an 1860s-style celebration at Historic Dominion Day, Sunday July 1 from 10 am to 4 pm at Lang Pioneer Village Museum.

Learn about the First Nation perspective on Confederation and their contributions to the development of the nation at Aabnaabin Camp. Enjoy free horse-drawn wagon rides throughout the historic village which will be decked out for the occasion with bunting and the historic flags of Canada. View a copy of the Globe and Mail from Confederation Day, July 1, 1867 at the Register Print Shop.

Beginning at 1:30 pm, take a seat on a bench under a shaded tree on the Village green for the official ceremonies. Hear music circa the 1860s performed by the Peterborough Concert Band, who are celebrating their 160th anniversary! Learn who the Fenians were and how their invasion of Canada helped influence Confederation as you witness our brave Canadian militia drive off the Fenian invaders during an exciting raid re-enactment by the Norwood and East Northumberland high school reenactors. Stand and join in when the Peterborough Concert Band performs "O' Canada" and officially celebrate Canada's birthday with a complimentary piece of cake!

At 2:45 pm, children can participate in schoolyard games including sack-races, three-legged races, egg relays and more.
